Attendance is required! 😊 We love seeing you everyday! 👁️

All students enrolled for the entire school year must attend 180 instructional days per school year. The total instructional days are prorated based on the student's start date. The daily amount of expected instructional time is: 5 hours for Kindergarten – 5th Grade and 6 hours for 6-12th Grade students.

Learning opportunities of instructional time include but are not limited to:

- interacting with the curriculum;
- progress made in the curriculum;
- assignment submissions;
- online Class Connect sessions attended;
- completion of internal assessments;
- and other offline resources.

Attendance is the combination of online, offline, and supplemental learning instructional time. Attendance may also include unique situations such as students placed in therapy centers, alternative settings, or programs. Daily attendance is verified by evidence of participation in instructional opportunities.

Friendly Reminders!!

K12 Photo Competition is open for public voting, and anyone can vote up to one time per day during the voting period!

K12 Game On has launched for K-12th grade students! Pitch your idea for an educational video game!

LC Mental Heath Series is back again this school year, with next month's session on October 9th with the topic of Supporting Your Child After Trauma. Previous sessions are recorded and can be accessed via the same link.

Absences happen! We miss you🥺 Here is what to do!

MU Prep understands that there may be circumstances that require a student to not attend during a school day. Absences must be reported by the parent or legal guardian to be excused. The absence can be reported through written notification (muprepattendance@muprep.com) or calling and leaving a voicemail on the attendance phone line (463-234-1720).

Absences will be considered excused for legitimate reasons, including but not limited to:

- illness verified by note from parent/guardian;
- illness (physical, mental, maternity, etc.) verified by note from Physician's office or hospital;
- funeral and bereavement;
- religious holiday;
- military connected absences;
- state fair participation or any other reasons exempted by Indiana Code to be recorded as absent, including but not limited to service as a state legislative page or honoree, service on an election board or to a candidate on election day, or appearing in court as a judicial witness.

Absences due to illness exceeding more than three consecutive days may result in a request for a physician's note.
